Join us at the Cheltenham Good Afternoon Choir - and . . . Bring A Friend

Sandra Burne leads the choir and our founder is Grenville Jones. We meet every Monday afternoon from 1pm - 3pm at Highbury Congregational Church. There is NO CHARGE for attending your first rehearsal and membership information is then available. COME ALONG WITH A FRIEND.

Sandra Burne (pictured) has an eclectic background including: choral leader; tutor of woodwind, Maths, and English for Academic Purposes; and IT management. She has performed in amateur and professional choirs, orchestras, and ensembles in Europe and the US. Of all Sandra's musical experiences, it's conducting that gives her the most satisfaction. Sandra also leads local chamber, church, and club choirs and is looking forward to joining the Good Afternoon Choir team and launching Cheltenham's Good Afternoon Choir.

There are NO AUDITIONS and everyone is welcome at our afternoon Choirs... whilst some members have sung before, many are new to choir singing - it's a great way to make new friends. You will be joining over 1000 people Singing in the Afternoons! Pictured above - the group who sang in Truro Cathedral in 2019 and yes we'll be planning more weekends away in 2022.

The Cheltenham Good Afternoon Choir will be enjoying all sorts of music – from folk songs to choral favourites. If you have any questions about the Choir please contact Jody at Grenville's office by calling 01761 472468 or emailing gac@grenvillemusic.co.uk - or just come along to your first free session, with a friend of course!
